225

DIEV ET MON DROIT

By the King.

CHARLES by the grace of God, King of ENGLAND, SCOTLAND, FRANCE, and IRELAND, Defender of the Faith, &c.

To all Our loving ſubjects whom it ſhall or may concern, greeting. Whereas by Our Letters Patents, and former Proclamation for the good of Our ſubjects, and for the advancement of Trade, a Reſtraint was granted concerning the Exportation of Butter out of England and Wales: Now underſtanding by the Generall and Officers of Our Army, that it much concerneth Our ſervice, that good quantities of Butter ſhould be brought in for the victualling of Our ſaid Army. We have therefore by advice of Our Councell, thought fit, and do hereby for the preſent (till Our further pleaſure be ſignified) ſuſpend the execution of the ſaid Graut and Proclamation, and accordingly declare them hereby to be ſuſpended. And we alſo give hereby free liberty to all Our loving ſubjects, as well in theſe Northern, as in the Weſtern parts, and in Wales, to bring to any of Our Northern Ports what quantity of Butter they can furniſh to Our ſaid Army and Garriſons, at Marketable rates. And this Our Royall pleaſure we require and command all Maiors, Juſtices of Peace, Bayliffs, and other our Officers and Miniſters, to cauſe to be made known and publiſhed, ſo as generall notice may be taken of the ſame.

Given at Our Court at Newcaſtle the ninth day of May, in the fifteenth yeer of Our Reign.

God ſave the King.

Imprinted at Newcaſtle by Robert Barker, Printer to the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſtie: And by the Aſsignes of JOHN BILL. 1639.